Faculty Associate

Hugh Downs School of Human Communication

Job# 12678

The Hugh Downs School of Human Communication at Arizona State University invites applications for the position of Faculty Associate. The School seeks to establish a pool of qualified applicants to teach masters-level courses in our Online MA program beginning the Spring 2019 semester.

The number of courses assigned (Faculty Associates are limited to teaching 1-2 courses per semester) and subject matter are contingent upon the needs of the school, funding, and sufficient enrollment. The courses currently needing coverage are:

- 598 Communication in Global Contexts
- 598 Communication in the Workplace
- 598 Communication and Gender
- 598 Social Influence and Persuasion
- 598 Theory & Practice of Negotiating
- 598 Crisis Management Communication

Faculty Associate positions are fixed-term appointments with no tenure implications. Subsequent renewal is possible contingent upon satisfactory performance, availability of resources, and the needs of the university. Specific start date within Spring 2019 semester will vary based on assigned courses.

Qualifications to Teach Masters-Level Courses
