

invite you to participate in the

COME AND SHARE YOUR VISION!

Democracy is a conversation, not a monologue.

Every January, the President delivers a State of the Union Address (Inaugural Address this year) highlighting important issues and priorities for the coming year. The People's State of the Union supplements the President's stories with our own, gathered from story circles in homes, schools, houses of worship, and community organizations across the United States, January 27-February 5, 2017.

PEOPLE'S STATE OF THE UNION —TEMPE

WHEN: Friday, February 3, 2017 -- 7:00 - 8:30 p.m.

WHERE: The Empty Space

ASU Performing & Media Arts building (APMA)
970 E. University (NE corner of University and Rural), Tempe

Admission is free, but seating is limited! RSVP at www.civil-dialogue.com

When you RSVP we'll send you a "What to Expect" handout in advance

More information: John Genette, 480-595-9292; john.genette@asu.edu

The People's State of the Union is conceived and coordinated by the U.S. Department of Arts and Culture, an act of collective imagination (not a government agency).