COMMUNICATION UNDERGRADUATE REQUIREMENTS

All Communication undergraduates must complete the requirements of 1) the University General Studies, 2) The College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, and 3) the Hugh Downs School of Human Communication major. ASU bachelors' degrees require 120 semester hrs. including a minimum of 45 hrs. of upper division (300-400 level) credit. Students may use a maximum of 64 semester hrs. transferred from two-year institutions. The transferability of credit will be determined by Undergraduate Admissions, while the applicability of accepted credit will be determined by the College of Liberal Arts and Sciences and the Hugh Downs School. Students must complete a minimum of 30 semester hrs. at ASU.

1) University General Studies

ASU General Studies requirements include First Year Composition, Literacy and Critical Inquiry (L), Mathematical Studies (MA & CS), Humanities and Fine Arts (HU), Social and Behavioral Sciences (SB), Natural Sciences (SQ & SG), as well as the University Awareness Areas of Cultural Diversity (C), Global Awareness (G), and Historical Awareness (H). For information on these requirements, refer to "General Studies" and "University Graduation Requirements" in the ASU General Catalog.

2) College Graduation Requirements

Students pursuing a B.A. must fulfill the second language proficiency requirement. The fourth semester requires a "C" minimum grade.

Students pursuing a B.S. must fulfill the Science and Society requirement. This is a paired sequence of 2 courses of at least 3 hours each. These courses MAY NOT be from the major department, may not be used to fill University General Studies and must be chosen from the list of approved Science and Society courses. This list is available at <https://clas.asu.edu/node/13605>

3) The Hugh Downs School of Human Communication Major Requirements

Students may choose to complete either a Bachelor of Arts or a Bachelor of Science degree in Communication. Each degree requires a minimum of 42 semester hrs, including 9 hrs. of upper-division related area (non-COM) courses.

Notes:

- You are responsible for completing any prerequisites that may be required for Related Area choices. Prerequisites for courses are listed in the ASU catalog descriptions.
- Many departments offer minors or certificates. Although minors or certificates are not required, students may elect to complete the requirements for a minor or for a certificate by combining choices in the Related Area and the General Electives.
- Remember to check 394,494 course numbers. These courses will not be listed in the catalog because they are new, but they do qualify for use as Related Area courses.

The Hugh Downs School of Human Communication

ACADEMIC ADVISING

The Hugh Downs School provides academic advising by appointment and on a walk-in basis. Appointments are available Monday – Friday. Communication majors may walk in on a first come, first served basis, Wednesday afternoons from 1:30 - 4 PM.

The School's advisors are Michele Brennan, Barbara DeDecker, Carol Comito, Jason LaBret and Debra Daly.

Communication majors are encouraged to meet with an advisor at least once a year to update information, revise their academic plans, and prepare for graduation.

Some reminders and online resources to assist you:

Read the course descriptions and the pre-requisites for courses.

<https://webapp.asu.edu/catalog/>

Read the Curriculum Check Sheet, and refer to our website and the ASU General Catalog for clarification. It is your responsibility to understand the degree requirements.

<http://humancommunication.clas.asu.edu/undergraduate/major-information>

Review your DARS report, accessible through myASU or DARSweb.

<https://webapp4.asu.edu/dars4webstudent>

Make use of the online GPA calculator.

Pay attention to deadlines!

If you schedule an appointment, please keep your appointment and be on time. If you need to cancel or reschedule, please do so online. Many students are waiting to take the slot you vacate.

Advising appointments are NOT for:

Scheduling your classes or enrollment in classes.

We can help you choose, but planning the perfect schedule is your task alone. Classes are in great demand. You may not get exactly what you want, when you want it, so have Plans B and C ready, and be prepared to be flexible!

To schedule an advising appointment, click on the Advising link in MyASU. If you need assistance with scheduling please call 480-965-5095 or come to the School's office in Stauffer Hall Room 412.

Opportunities in Communication

ACADEMIC OPPORTUNITIES

Classroom Apprenticeships (COM 382)

Non-graded credit for students extending their experience with a content area by assisting with classroom supervision in other COM courses (maximum 3 semester hrs. each semester). Contact instructor and get approval to serve as a classroom apprentice. Generally students have completed the content area course with a "B" or better. Most instructors require that you have taken the course from them. Complete the "Independent Study" form (available in the Communication Main Office, Stauffer A412) 30 days before the semester begins (requires instructor, advisor, and Director signatures).

Forensics

The Sun Devil Forensic squad is among the most successful collegiate speech and debate programs in the nation. The program offers CEDA/NDT-style policy debate and AFA/NFA individual events. The team travels around the nation for competition, as well as serving as host to one of the nation's largest high school speech and debate tournaments.

For more information email the Director of Forensics Adam Symonds at adam.symonds@asu.edu. Information is also on the web at: http://humancommunication.clas.asu.edu/undergraduate/forensics_recruit

Independent Study (COM 499)

Provides an opportunity for original study or investigation in the discipline of communication on an individual and more autonomous basis. Neither a substitute for a catalog course nor a means of taking a catalog course on an individual basis. Requires application well in advance of regular registration with the student's advisor, the advisor's signature, and approval by both the instructor with whom the student will work and the Director of the Hugh Downs School.

Internships (COM 484)

Internships consist of supervised field experiences and are available to upper-level undergraduate students with major status and a minimum 2.50 GPA. An application for internship credit must be completed at least one full semester before the intended term for an internship. Internships must receive prior approval from the Internship Director before student registration for the course. Internships may be taken for credit up to a total of 6 semester hours.

For more information: Visit the website at <http://humancommunication.clas.asu.edu/undergraduate/internships>

The Empty Space Theatre

Participants write, compile, and perform scripts for presentation in diverse on- and off-campus locations. For information visit <http://humancommunication.clas.asu.edu/content/current-performances>

Research Apprenticeships (COM 404)

Direct research experience on faculty projects. Student/faculty match based on interests. Interested students should complete the "Research Apprenticeship Program" application form available in the Communication Main Office, Stauffer A412.

Summer Session in London, Dublin, and Edinburgh

A unique opportunity for an intercultural study experience while completing general studies requirements in Communication. Students enroll for 6 or 9 ASU credits of COM courses taught by ASU faculty and guest lecturers. For the registration deadline contact Dr. Belle Edson at bedson@asu.edu.

For more information: Contact the Main Office 965-5095 OR VISIT THE WEBSITE:
http://humancommunication.clas.asu.edu/undergraduate/study_abroad

Scholarships

The Hugh Downs School of Human Communication offers several scholarships/awards annually. Most award deadlines are March 1. Detailed scholarship information and application materials are available online:
